

17-25 October 2015, in Tabor, Czech Republic

Training Course "Magic of NFL"

So you are passionate about working with young people?! You have experience in organizing Youth Exchanges or other activities for youth?! That's great, but who are you: Youth Worker, Youth Activist, Youth Leader, Peer-to-peer Educator or somebody else? What are your strengths and weaknesses and how do you use these when working with young people?

This Training Course gives you a unique opportunity to tap into your mental and emotional resources and take control of the quality of your interaction with young people, when working as a designed and facilitator of non-formal learning (NFL) activity.

Magic of NFL is a 7 days training course that allows you to step out of your daily context and discover the magical world of non-formal education, gain perspective on the different aspects of your passion – working with youngsters. In a group of 28 young people from 10 countries, through an experiential learning cycle, you will explore all about: meaning of learning and education, difference between formal, non-formal and informal learning, different styles of learning, group dynamics, creativity, characteristics of quality of non-formal learning process, what means competences and how to develop them, the magic of facilitation learning process, quality and ethics in facilitation, how to set-up your own learning goals.
